

Media Contact:
Lynn Corbitt, Rasor
513-207-8699
lynn@gorasor.com

Element Eatery Announces Aaron Mulder as General Manager

The food hall will soon hire approximately 75 positions.

MADISONVILLE, Ohio (July 28, 2022) – The highly anticipated Element Eatery is another step closer to bringing incredible food and drink in an inspiring space to the Cincinnati community. The Element Eatery team has named Aaron Mulder as general manager of the food hall, located at 5350 Medpace Way in Madison Square. Throughout his career, Mulder has grown and managed multiple restaurants in the Midwest.

“We are thrilled to welcome Aaron to the team. He has an impressive background and an excellent vision to grow Element Eatery into a destination that offers something for everyone,” says Tyler Troendle, managing director of AT Hospitality LLC, which is developing the food hall.

Mulder’s experience ranges from building a multi-unit business from scratch, to helping franchisees run independently owned businesses. He’s also managed partnerships between restaurants and sports teams, both on the university and professional levels. Mulder’s teams provided hundreds of meals in short periods of time to athletes and spectators alike. Working in many different venues has taught Mulder that food brings us together.

“Everyone loves good food and good drinks. At Element Eatery, you’ll be able to choose from eight different food experiences, but there will be much more available. We’ll have a coffee bar, an ice creamery and build-your-own salad selection, too. There’s also going to be a market and a refrigerated grab-and-go area so you can quickly get items from your favorite vendor. We’ll also have lots of great entertainment, with something for everyone,” says Mulder.

Element Eatery owns a prime spot in Madisonville, nestled between the AAA Four Diamond Summit Hotel and brand-new cocktail bar Placebo.

“The location of Element Eatery will make it easy for guests of The Summit Hotel to venture to us to enjoy a delicious bite and entertainment before heading to Placebo for a nightcap,” says Mulder.

Making sure all of Element Eatery’s guests are happy is one of Mulder’s chief goals, so he already has a list of ideas for entertainment and celebrations that the community will be able to enjoy: everything from Bengals broadcasts and bachelor/bachelorette parties to corporate and fantasy football events. But, he’s also looking forward to working with the team at the food hall. One of the best parts of being a general manager for him is to give staff opportunities and help them grow their careers.

“I’m so excited to be here at Element Eatery. In interacting with eight different kitchen owners, managing our own staff and housing a full, 48-tap bar, I’m looking forward to putting a unique spin on what people expect from a food hall,” says Mulder.

If you’re looking for the next step in your career, consider joining the Element Eatery team. Mulder is beginning his search for a variety of positions, including management staff, bussers, dining room staff, baristas and more. For more information call (513) 272-9800 or email info@element-eatery.com.

Construction of the dining destination by Skanska USA is nearly complete. Follow along on Instagram, Facebook and Twitter @ElementEatery to see behind the scenes as the dining destination counts down to its opening day, anticipated in early fall 2022.

###

About Element Eatery

Element Eatery is distinctly Cincinnati while offering new and ever-evolving culinary experiences to all guests. Located in Madisonville, OH, guests will find what they’re looking for, whether that’s a quiet space to meet with a colleague or the next Friday night hangout for the friend group. Element Eatery hosts eight varied food experiences, so guests enjoy incredible food in an inspiring, 34,500 square foot space with seating for more than 400 inside, and 150+ on three outdoor terraces. The eatery is designed by Gresham Smith and built by Skanska USA. Both firms worked on the 5th & Broadway project in Nashville that houses The Assembly, Nashville’s newest food hall. Element Eatery is managed by AT Hospitality LLC.